Visioning Committee

The mission of the EOCC's Visioning Committee is to present and discuss key issues affecting the East Orlando region. The committee carries on the work of the original East Orlando Visioning Study that was published in 2003 by holding regular updates on topics covered in the study, including education, employment, health care, housing, recreation and transportation.

Goals

Focus on the six topics presented in the Visioning Study and new issues in our evolving community.

Promote available resources to members through interactive programs and panel discussions and provide access to brochures, Web sites and other materials.

- Strengthen partnerships in topic areas.
